

Reds Abandon Korea Buildup Valley, Lose 10 Planes In Dogfight

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO—(P)—Ten Red planes were shot down or damaged today in the Korean war's first double-deck dog-fight.

Both jet and propeller driven planes—98 of them—took part in the fourth consecutive day of air war over northwest Korea.

On the ground North Koreans suddenly abandoned punchbowl valley, which they had fought for so viciously. United Nations guns now dominate the former Red buildup area on the eastern front.

Sharp battles flared Wednesday on both sides of the valley—one near Kansong on the east coast and the other in mountains north of Yanggu.

Enemy Overpowered
The double air battle broke out simultaneously between low flying propeller planes and jets swirling above at 13,000 feet.

When it was over the Reds had lost three planes destroyed, one probably destroyed and six damaged.

Twenty-four U. N. Mustang fighters overpowered a flight of six Russian-built propeller planes. All the Reds were hit. A Yak fighter and two Stormovik attack bombers were shot down. Another Stormovik was probably destroyed and two were damaged.

The four days of air war cost the Reds 28 planes destroyed or damaged. The fifth air force listed nine shot down, one probably knocked out and 18 damaged.

There have been no figures of U. N. losses if any in these air battles.

The Navy and Marine Corps have lost "approximately 300 aircraft" during the Korean war, which will be year-old Monday, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy announced. The losses are not the result of air battles.

Assembly Area Useless
The abruptly abandoned punchbowl lies between the Kansong and Yanggu sectors.

North Koreans fought stubbornly for ten days in defense of ridges rimming the bowl on the south against a powerful U. N. pincer movement. One final ridge changed hands six times in saw fighting Tuesday under cover of an intense artillery duel.

Allies charged the ridge again Wednesday morning. There was no one there.

A front line dispatch said U. N. artillery now can sweep the entire punch bowl, making it useless to the Reds as an assembly area.

Drive Opens To Get Tax Boost Through House By Friday

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
WASHINGTON—(P)—The administration opened a drive today to push a record-breaking $7,200,000,000 tax increase through the House by tomorrow night or Friday.

The bill, carrying a 12½ per cent increase in individual income taxes together with sharp hikes in corporate rates and exercise taxes, will be considered under procedure which bars amendments unless they are offered by the Ways and Means committee. The two days of general debate must end by 3 p. m. (EST) on the second day.

The income tax boost would take effect Sept. 1; the corporation tax increase would be retroactive to last Jan. 1; and the new excise laws would become effective a few weeks after the bill became law.

The 12½ per cent "defense tax" would be superimposed on income taxes figured at present rates. Another provision would allow the government to take no more than 90 per cent of a wealthy individual's income. The present ceiling is 87 per cent.

The bill, however, carries some relief for some taxpayers' "single" heads of families, such as widows with dependent children, would be allowed one-half of the income tax benefits available to married persons as a result of the income splitting provision of the present law. Home owners who sold their dwellings would not have to pay a capital gains tax on any profit if they reinvested it in another personal residence within a year.

Nearly everyone would feel some effects from the proposed excise tax increases. These would send the tax on gasoline up from 1½ to two cents a gallon, on cigarettes from seven to eight cents a pack, on whiskey from $9 to $10.50 a gallon, on beer from $8 to $9 a barrel, and on automobiles from seven to 10 per cent of the manufacturers' price, to name only some.

In a new venture, the committee proposed a 10 per cent tax on the take of bookmakers and lottery operators. This was estimated officially to bring in $400,000,000.

Bill Is Signed To Raise Pay Of Legislators

Gov. Williams Vetoes Two New Measures

LANSING—The general appropriation bill for operation of state agencies and state-supported colleges for the next fiscal year and a bill increasing legislators' salaries were signed by Governor Williams today.

At the same time he vetoed two measures.

The appropriation bill provides $199,916,654 from the general fund and $109,663,335 from restricted funds for general operations.

Appropriations for civil defense, welfare and other purposes. Covered in separate measures, bring the total appropriation from the general fund to a record $306,000,000.

Under the new law legislators' salaries will be increased from $2,400 to $2,900 and their expense accounts from $500 to $1,000, making their total compensation $3,900.

Drug Act Opposed

On the advice of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association and others, the governor vetoed a measure designed to regulate the sale of drugs and the practice of pharmacy.

Designed to supplant the present regulations, the bill contained a provision which would have permitted drug stores to have registered pharmacists in attendance only part of the time they were open.

The governor said this was his principal objection.

Other less significant objections, he said, were provisions to permit the acceptance of prescriptions orally and limitation of the meeting days of the board of pharmacy.

The chief executive also refused to approve a bill which would have distributed a quarter of the $900,000 annual oil and gas severance tax to the counties where those resources are produced.

He said the bill was "substantially identical" with one he vetoed in 1949. The state which receives all of the severance tax at present has a critical need of revenue and in my opinion there is no justification in taking this substantial sum from the general fund where it is so desperately needed," the governor said.

School Laws Approved

Among other measures signed were bills to:

Establish an accident and sickness insurance policy in uniformity with other states and make general revisions in the insurance code.

Require probate courts to notify persons interested in an estate by registered mail in case where notice of a hearing is given by publication.

Repeal a law authorizing the superintendent of public instruction to remove county commissioners of schools, which have now been replaced by appointed county superintendents.

Require school electors to have lived in the school district

Sports Fishing Gets Boost In Michigan

LANSING—(P)—A new law generally liberalizing sports fishing starting next year was signed today by Governor Williams.

The measure opens all inland lakes in the state to year-around fishing for species which are not otherwise closed. At present no fishing is allowed on southern lakes between March 31 and June 25.

Hospital Expansion Bill Goes Without Williams' Signature

LANSING—(P)—A bill appropriating $3,000,000 for expanding county and city tuberculosis hospitals today was law without Governor Williams' signature.

Fog-bound in Omaha, Neb., yesterday, the governor called to report he had planned to be back in time to sign the bill.

"This bill is defective in a number of ways and I had planned to sign it only because it does provide for some hospital construction," he said in a statement telephoned to his office.

"I will probably have some further comment on it when I return to Lansing."

The bill provides that the money shall be distributed by the Emergency Appropriations commission (little legislature) on recommendations of a special legislative committee assigned to study the distribution.

President May Try Message To Stifle Revolt In Congress

By FRANK O'BRIEN

WASHINGTON—(P)—A Democratic senator had a report today President Truman may try to put down a revolt against important elements of his economic controls program with a special message to Congress.

The chief executive also refused to approve a bill which would have distributed a quarter of the $900,000 annual oil and gas severance tax to the counties where those resources are produced.

He said the bill was "substantially identical" with one he vetoed in 1949. ## Pontiac Police Hunt Man With Bandage abducted a Detroit housewife and fled to Iowa today a few hours before a murder warrant was issued against him.

PONTIAC, Mich.—(P)—A 27-year-old Detroit ex-con convicted

Police of several midwestern states and FBI agents joined in the intensified hunt for Warren Lee Irwin, who was named in a murder warrant here this morning in the death of Mrs. Madeline Shagena of Oxford, Mich.

The first clue to Irwin's whereabouts came shortly after noon today when he released the housewife whom he abducted last night on a pretext that he wanted her to drive him to an airport.

The woman, Mrs. Lois Myers, 43, made her way to police headquarters in West Liberty, Ia.

This was the story she told authorities:

Irwin came to her Detroit home last night and asked her for a ride to an airport so he could get a plane to see his sick mother. He told her that his mother was a close friend of hers.

Mrs. Myers was reluctant, but finally agreed to drive him to the airport.

The opening of the trout season is retained as the last Saturday in April, but the opening of the other seasons on the same day is expected to relieve opening day pressure on trout streams.

The opening of the bass season is changed only slightly to allow its opening every year on a Saturday. The opener is changed from June 25 to the third Saturday in June.

Creel size limits remain unchanged except that the creel limit of trout from streams is reduced from 15 to 10 a day.

Other provisions of the new law permit winter spearing for sturgeon 42 inches and longer in any water open to fishing, permit the use of bow and arrow for taking carp and suckers in the Lower Peninsula in April and May and provide that fishing licenses will be valid from Dec. 1 of one year to Dec. 31 of the next year.

Detroit Transit Strike Costly

Loss Estimated At Over $2,000,000

DETROIT—(P)—Detroit totaled up the cost of its 59-day transit strike today and found it considerable.

There was no official figure, but estimates from various sources put the total at more than $2,000,000.

Auditors of the Department of Street Railways reported a loss of $1,814,000 in revenues suffered while the AFL's 3,500 striking drivers were leaving the street cars and buses in the barns.

However, the extent of this as a "paper" loss covered by non-operation savings was not clear.

Meantime, mediators prepared today to take over the unresolved wage issues. If they can't get a solution within 30 days, the dispute will go to final and binding arbitration.

After getting over difficulties of yesterday's first work day in 60 days, the DSR was running on customary schedules.

ENCAMPMENT

National Guard Camp Aug. 11-27

Enlistments Still Being Accepted

The annual Michigan National Guard encampment, which will be attended by men of Delta County's Company C and other Upper Peninsula units of the 107th Engineers, will be held at Camp Grayling August 11-27, it was announced here today.

Participation in summer field training is a requirement for all National Guard personnel, who will train with the latest Army equipment and receive fulltime Army pay while at Camp Grayling.

"Young men who join the National Guard now will be eligible to go to Camp Grayling this summer," Capt. Roy J. Johnson, Company C, commander, said.

"We hope to have a good representation from the Escanaba-Gladstone-Rapid River-Bark River area. All who would like to join before camp time are asked to see Sgt. Vernon Rousseau at the Escanaba armory, 400 North 23rd street, anytime between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday or visit the armory during the regular armory drill any Wednesday between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m."

The National Guard is the principal reserve component of the United States Army as well as Michigan's military force available for prompt service in time of disaster or public emergency, it was pointed out.

Employers of men in the National Guard are asked to cooperate to the fullest extent to permit them to participate in the important summer field training from August 11-27.

Attack On News Carrier Results In Damage Suit

MENOMINEE—A circuit court suit asking $2,500 damages has been filed in Menominee by Roy DeGaylor of Edgewood beach on behalf of his son, Patrick, 15, against L. E. Jones of Menominee. DeGaylor claims that Jones struck his son May 12 as Patrick, a Herald-Leader carrier boy, came to collect for the week's papers.

According to the suit, the DeGaylor youth, receiving no answer when he knocked at the Jones home fronting Green Bay on M-35, became engaged in conversation with a group of youngsters.

It is claimed that Jones struck the DeGaylor boy in the eye, that the blow caused severe confusion and discoloration and inflamed the muscles and membranes to such an extent that he required examination and treatment by a physician.

The suit further charges that Jones knocked the youth from an extension of land into the waters of Green Bay, and that he struck him twice when he asked to collect. Patrick was ill one week, according to the complaint.

In an answer filed Monday, Jones claimed the DeGaylor youth was intruding on his land, and that his "noisy conduct" disturbed the defendant's enjoyment. Jones claimed he ejected the boy from the property with only reasonable

St. Ann Young Peoples Group Meets Thursday

A new youth organization sponsored by St. Ann's church under the direction of Father James F. McNaughton, assistant pastor, will hold its first meeting Thursday evening.

The organization will be composed of young, unmarried people out of high school, and will meet for social and Catholic action, primarily for preparation for vocations and marriage, with an occasional social meeting.

The first meeting will be held at Richard Larson's cottage on the Escanaba River, Thursday evening. The group will meet at St. Ann's for transportation to the cottage. They will elect officers and draw up rules for the new organization.

Special invitations are being issued non-members of the Chamber.

Conservation Auction Of Furlong Home At Newberry Criticized

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. — (P)—Speaker of the House Victor A. Knox (R-Sault Ste. Marie) today questioned the conservation commission decision to sell the house occupied by the conservation department district supervisor at Newberry.

The commission approved sale of the house at auction at its May meeting and at the same time approved the early retirement of District Supervisor Pat Furlong effective May 15.

"If the commission's policy is to discontinue furnishing houses for supervisors," Knox said, "it should put them all up for sale at the same time."

"But if this is for the benefit of some special person," it is very bad."

No date for the sale of the house has been set as yet. This was believed to be a move to permit Furlong to legally bid on the house. State regulations forbid former employees to bid in such cases until they have been out of state service 90 days.

The house may be included in a regular land auction at Manistique in September when Furlong is able to bid.

City Council Meets Tonight

Bus Line Requests Schedule Changes

The regular meeting of the Escanaba city council will be held this evening at eight o'clock at the council chambers of the city hall. The meeting, originally scheduled for Thursday, was moved up to Wednesday night to permit the state liquor control commission to use the council room for a meeting Thursday night.

Items of business scheduled to be considered by the council follow:

Request of the Delta Transit company to discontinue unprofitable summer routes.

Request of the Delta County road commission for a unit of the veterans housing buildings for erection at Pioneer Trail park.

Request for authority to cancel the veterans housing accounts.

Deadline To File Dependency Proof Fixed At June 30

Last year when Congress passed the amendments to the Social Security Act, greater consideration was given to World War II veterans and their survivors. Carl L. Johnson, manager of the Social Security office in Escanaba said today that June 30, 1951, is the deadline for parents, regardless of age, to file proof that the deceased son or daughter furnished one-half or more of their support.

Parents of deceased World War II servicemen may receive monthly payments at age 65 if they can show that they were receiving at least one-half of their support from the servicemen before his death. Mr. Johnson pointed out that ordinarily proof of dependency must be filed within two years after the death of a son or daughter. Because of the veteran section of the law, however, the period has been extended to June 30, 1951. This is true whether death occurred during World War II or after discharge. According to Mr. Johnson, the new law gives the serviceman wage credits of $160 for each month spent in military service between September 16, 1940 and July 24, 1947, just as if the serviceman had been working on a job covered by social security at an average salary of $160 a month.

ERA Joins Project For Blood Program

The local unit of the Equitable Reserve Association of Neenah, Wisconsin, is participating in a nationwide project of the fraternal life insurance societies to secure funds to purchase and present to the American Red Cross a number of mobile units for gathering blood for the boys in military units and for civilian needs.

The project, originated by the National Fraternal Congress of America, calls on the 85,000 lodges of the fraternal benefit societies throughout the United States and Canada to contribute cash and enroll blood donor volunteers from their nine million members.

C&NW Ore Shipping To Set New Record In '51

Announcement that 1951 is expected to be a banner year in ore shipping from Escanaba today coincided with a conference between Chicago & North Western and Milwaukee road officials on routing additional ore here from the Menominee range.

This year it is anticipated a total of 6,870,000 tons of ore will be loaded from the two C&NW docks at Escanaba, compared to the previous peak tonnage of 6,330,565 in the wartime year of 1943.

To meet the acute demand for ore to supply the nation's hungry steel mills, ore is being mined and moved faster than in any year since the close of World War II.

Tonnage Is Doubled

Ore comes to the docks at Escanaba from three iron ranges, Menominee, Marquette and Gogebic.

To date this year the tonnage shipped from Escanaba is more than double last year's total for the same period. In 1950 the total to date was 1,506,804 tons, compared to this year's tonnage total to date of 2,232,035.

Increasing tonnage of ore is being received this year from the Gogebic range to hasten the boat haul to the Lower Lakes. Ore previously consigned to Ashland docks is now coming to Escanaba by rail for loading.

Boats can make three trips to Escanaba compared to two to Ashland in the same period of time.

Reopen Warner Mine

Today at C&NW Peninsula Division offices in Escanaba officials of the North Western and the Milwaukee Road are discussing supplemental ore pool agreement terms in connection with the reopening of the North Range Mining company's Warner mine at Hemite east of Crystal Falls.

The Warner mine is on the Milwaukee Road. Its ore will be hauled part way to Escanaba on Milwaukee Road and the remaining distance on the North Western, requiring agreement on operations and handling.

Originally opened in 1915, the Warner mine was abandoned in

Milwaukee Tries Jail Sentences As Curb For Drunken Drivers

DETROIT'S success in reducing traffic accidents by a tough enforcement policy on drunk drivers and reckless drivers has prompted Milwaukee to adopt a similar policy.

Monday eight drunk drivers were sentenced to jail in Milwaukee, one for the maximum term of six months. Another got four months, a third three months and a fourth one month. The others were sentenced to 10 or 15 days in jail, plus $100 fine each. The long prison terms in Milwaukee are mitigated by the Huber law of Wisconsin which permits county jail prisoners to work at their occupations in the day and to spend the nights in jail.

Except in Detroit, where a tough policy has been in effect for more than a year, drunk drivers in Michigan usually get off with a $50 fine plus cost. A jail sentence is unusual, invoked only in the most aggravated situations. Even the repeaters generally get off with a $50 fine on the second and third offenses.

Michigan's traffic accident record is bad and getting worse. Indicative of the trend is the recent 23% increase in automobile

Japs Learn More About Democracy

EVEN among those who approved General MacArthur's dismissal in April, there was widespread regret that the action removed from Japan the man who had so ably administered the occupation there.

Correspondents on the scene contributed to the general concern by voicing fears that the Japanese might react badly to the event. Some foresaw a deterioration in the situation that could wipe out some of the excellent progress Japan had made under MacArthur.

Actually, no dire results have ensued. That a calamity has not occurred does not, however, cast doubt on the judgment of those who measured MacArthur's administration so highly.

It is simply a reflection of the endlessly-demonstrated fact that in a working democracy like America's, no man is indispensable nor need be regarded as such.

General Ridgway, his talents as a field commander already well proved, is now displaying the special abilities required for an occupation administrator, as did MacArthur before him, and General Clay in Berlin.

This is not to say he has the same specific qualities, or that he sees the job in quite the same light. There are significant differences between his personality and MacArthur's, and inevitably their approach is different.

The important thing is not to make comparisons in an effort to determine whose administration is "best." For Americans, the exciting fact is that a man of MacArthur's stature can be supplanted without damaging the nation's prestige or reducing the effectiveness of its policies.

We can be gratified that in some fields, at least, we appear to have an ample reservoir of leadership and can thus give continuity to our affairs.

But probably the greatest benefit from Ridgway's excellent follow-up performance is the lesson it has given to the Japanese. There had been in their extreme regard for MacArthur something of the same worshipful attitude the Japs always had felt for their emperor.

To a nation being schooled by us in the ways of democracy, it was therefore valuable instruction to learn that leaders could be changed without upsetting matters. Rotation of leadership is inherent in our concept of democracy.

Funds To Fight Lamprey Increased

FEDERAL funds to fight the vicious lamprey eel which threatens the destruction of commercial and sports fishing on the Great Lakes will be increased to $500,000 in 1952 under the terms of a bill submitted by Rep. Potter and passed by the house. The bill now goes to the Senate.

The federal government this year is spending $216,000 to fight the lamprey, an appropriation greatly expanded from the first federal grant of $25,000 just a few years ago.

Thus far the federal experts have been seeking to learn more about the life habits of the lamprey and conducting experiments to determine how, if at all, they can be controlled. No practical solution has been found, except the construction of weirs in rivers where the lamprey spawn. The construction of weirs in all rivers is out of the question from a financial viewpoint so a better answer than that is necessary if the lamprey is to be halted.

Baffled Handy Man By Gordon Martin

Come an evening when you think you'd like to putter at your bench, doing quite a few repairing chores with hammer, saw and wrench. So when supper has been eaten, you descend the cellar stairs, to the workshop where you hope to make your numerous repairs. But you haven't more than started till the folks upstairs protest, that the noise your tools are making has them very much disturbed.

First your wife declares that hammering will surely drive her nuts, and that whining saw, it wrecks her nerves when every board it cuts. Must you hit those nails as if you were a kid who beats a drum, and for goodness' sake, the buzzing of that sander leaves her numb. How, in heaven's name, do you suppose she'll ever read her book—did you know that when you banged that pipe, the whole foundation shook?

Next it's Sister who's complaining of your power tools so dear, and they get the blame because the TV picture isn't clear. Then it's Brother who is hollering about his radio, and the awful interference that is coming from below. So you give it up and wonder why they think you're such a louse, just because you try to make a few repairs around the house.

Merry-Go-Round

(Editor's Note—The brass ring, good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round, goes to President Galo Plaza of Ecuador.)

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The first president of a Latin-American country ever born in the United States arrives in Washington today. He is Galo Plaza Lasso, president of Ecuador, who has played football at the University of California, sold apples in New York during the depression, and has built up a herd of 1,000 Holstein dairy cows one mile up on the plateaus of Ecuador.

More important than any of these, however, Galo Plaza is operating one of the few free and democratic countries in the Western Hemisphere. On a continent where democracy is considered a luxury safe only for countries which can afford deep-freezes, he has shown that democracy can work.

In only five other Latin-American countries today—Uruguay, Chile, Mexico, Cuba and Costa Rica—is there complete freedom of the press. In Peru, for instance, a newspaperman was jailed recently because he translated a Life magazine article on Evita Peron. The article was not even published, merely translated ready for publication. Nevertheless, he was clapped into jail.

Even in supposedly democratic India, Prime Minister Nehru has proposed legislation restricting the press. However, President Galo Plaza has laughed at the gibes of the Ecuadorian press, calls revolution "our national sport," has never imposed martial law, drives his own car to his farms, and talks in their own language to the Indians who come to see him.

COWS BY AIRPLANE

I confess to being a little partial toward Galo Plaza. I got to know him when he was ambassador to Washington, the introduction having come through the Madame Holstein and the fact that some of my cows are related to his. Incidentally, the president of Ecuador studied at the University of Maryland in order to specialize in dairying, and since that time he has imported his herd sires and some of his heifers from Homer Remsberg at Middletown, Md., sometimes flying them to Ecuador by plane.

The fact that Galo Plaza was born in an almost unknown hotel—the Hotel Martin—in New York's Greenwich village was due to the circumstance that his father, himself a president of Ecuador, was then in exile. His father was a buccaneering general who made his way by the sword, but who married a daughter of a top Ecuadorian aristocrat. She has spent much of her life in the United States and is still living.

As a youngster, Galo Plaza was literally brought up in politics. His father served two terms as president of Ecuador, once before Galo was born, once afterward. Galo saw him put across what were then almost revolutionary measures—public education, limiting the hours of the people's work, divorce, civil marriage, and expropriation of large landed estates.

During part of this time, Galo was a playboy at Maryland and California universities, sporting a convertible and a big coonskin coat, which, incidentally, proved a lifesaver when the old general got fed up with his son's life of ease and cut off his allowance. It was then that Galo sold apples on the street corners of New York, later got a job as assistant purser on the Grace Line between New York and Chile.

FIRE SIX GENERALS

Subsequently, Galo and his father patched up their differences, and young Plaza took over the operation of the family's farms, where he introduced American tractors, contour plowing, and Maryland cows. Neighbors scoffed, called him the "man with the Gringo ideas." But since then, farm methods in Ecuador gradually have become modernized.

Plaza got started in politics at the very bottom. He became a member of the municipal council of Quito, then mayor of Quito, later minister of defense, at a most crucial period—1938-'40—just before Pearl Harbor.

As minister of defense he laid down the unheard-of doctrine that the army must keep out of politics, and proved that he meant what he said.

At one cabinet crisis, his colleagues were in a dither over the threatened rebellion of six generals. Finally they turned to Galo Plaza, the minister of defense.

"It's very simple," he said. "I'll fire all six generals."

He did so. And the delineation between military and civilian government had progressed far enough in Ecuador that the six were not given the heroes' welcome given to General MacArthur in the United States today.

There's Danger Of Dust Bowls At Farm Production Levels Increase

By WATERS S. DAVIS, JR.
President, Nat'l Assn. of Soil
Conservation Districts

(Written for NEA Service, LEAVENWORTH CITY, Tex.—(NEA))

Throughout the United States, farmers are being urged to increase their production of food and fiber crops to new and unprecedented levels in order to meet the demands of national defense.

We are told by the Department of Agriculture that more acres must go into corn, into cotton and into the other crops necessary to support the free world's defense against Communism. And we have been warned that the present emergency may continue indefinitely.

This year our national goal for cotton has been set at 16,000,000 bales. Here in the south many farmers may make the mistake of attempting to meet these high goals by plowing up good pasture land and planting it to cotton; land which because of slope or erosion is not able to stand such intensive cultivation.

In the cornbelt, the farmers of Iowa, Illinois and other corn-hog states were asked to increase their corn acreage 10 per cent. The national goal for corn has been set at 90,000,000 acres.

These production goals should and can be met, but not in the way the American farmer helped win World War I or even the late war.

During the first world war, farmers of this country plowed up approximately 25,000,000 acres of land, much of which should have remained in native grasses. We won the war, but agriculture paid the price in the "dirty thirties" when the soil of east Colorado, west Kansas and the panhandle region darkened the sun and powdered the decks of ocean-going vessels, miles at sea.

One benefit came out of this big plow-up, however. For a dramatic demonstration was needed to awaken the nation to the perils of unwise land use and soil erosion. And, as a direct consequence, the U. S. Soil Conservation Service was created, to be followed only a few years later by the advent of soil conservation districts.

By the time World War II opened, farmers in every state had organized soil conservation districts under their own state laws. They were managing the affairs of these districts themselves and federal agencies, such as the SCS, which assists districts through trained technicians, were there only on the invitation of local people.

These farmers, who make up the district governing bodies, had not forgotten the bitter lesson they learned in the thirties. As a consequence, the plow-up for World War II accounted for only about 10 per cent of the grassland lost during the first world war.

However, high prices and the demand for war-time production did lead to bad land use in some cases. In the southern Great Plains Region between 1941 and 1948, 2,000,000 acres of virgin sod were plowed up and planted to cash crops. Some of this might have been potentially good crop land but, without doubt, more of it should have remained in grass.

There is nothing in the proposed (Japanese) treaty terms which should not be acceptable to Russia—that is, if she wishes to promote world peace.—John Foster Dulles, U. S. State Department adviser.

The crisis that faces us is largely brought about by the failure of man to solve such basic problems as the provision of adequate food, clothing, shelter, health services and educational and work opportunities.—Dr. Raymond B. Allen, president U. of Washington.

these in arid regions come the dust storms which are a dramatic signal that bad land use again is endangering our national future.

Thousands of farmers in 2300 soil conservation districts today

LOST 59 POUNDS
RENNEL DOES IT AGAIN

"I have been using Rennel Concentrate for some time, and have lost 59 lbs.," writes Joe Lee Brown, 2121 Hastings Street, Missoula. "I feel so much better since I have lost this weight and find that Rennel has been a wonderful help to me."

It's simple. It's amazing how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble, no cost. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day.

After a few days, the first noticeable result shows the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money.

It's the same, however, when the fat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on genuine Rennel.

Standard Oil-Atlas Monopoly Charged By Trial Examiner

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Five Standard Oil companies and the Atlas Supply company have been found guilty by a government trial examiner of monopolistic practices in tire, battery and auto accessory sales.

Unless the decision is appealed or the federal trade commission, with which it was filed by Examiner Everett F. Haycraft, starts a review of the case, within 30 days the decision will become that of the commission.

Basic of the complaint was a charge that the companies used their vast purchasing power to force manufacturers to give them lower prices or discounts and rebates denied to their competitors. Haycraft's order was accompanied by a stop-it provision to go into effect one year after issuance of the commission order.

Affected were the Standard Oil companies of New Jersey, Kentucky, California, Ohio and Indiana and Atlas Supply Co., of Newark, N. J. Atlas serves as buying agent for tire-battery-accessory or "TBA" products the Standard companies sell through service stations.

If an odor of burned gas is noticeable in your car, open the windows immediately, warns Automobile Club of Michigan. The dead gas carries with it odorless carbon monoxide, deadly poison to motorists.

Three Jackson Prison Inmates Walk Away

JACKSON, Mich. — (AP) — After rolling blankets and pillows to make it appear that their beds were occupied, three Negro inmates of southern Michigan prison's Dalton farm walked away early Tuesday.

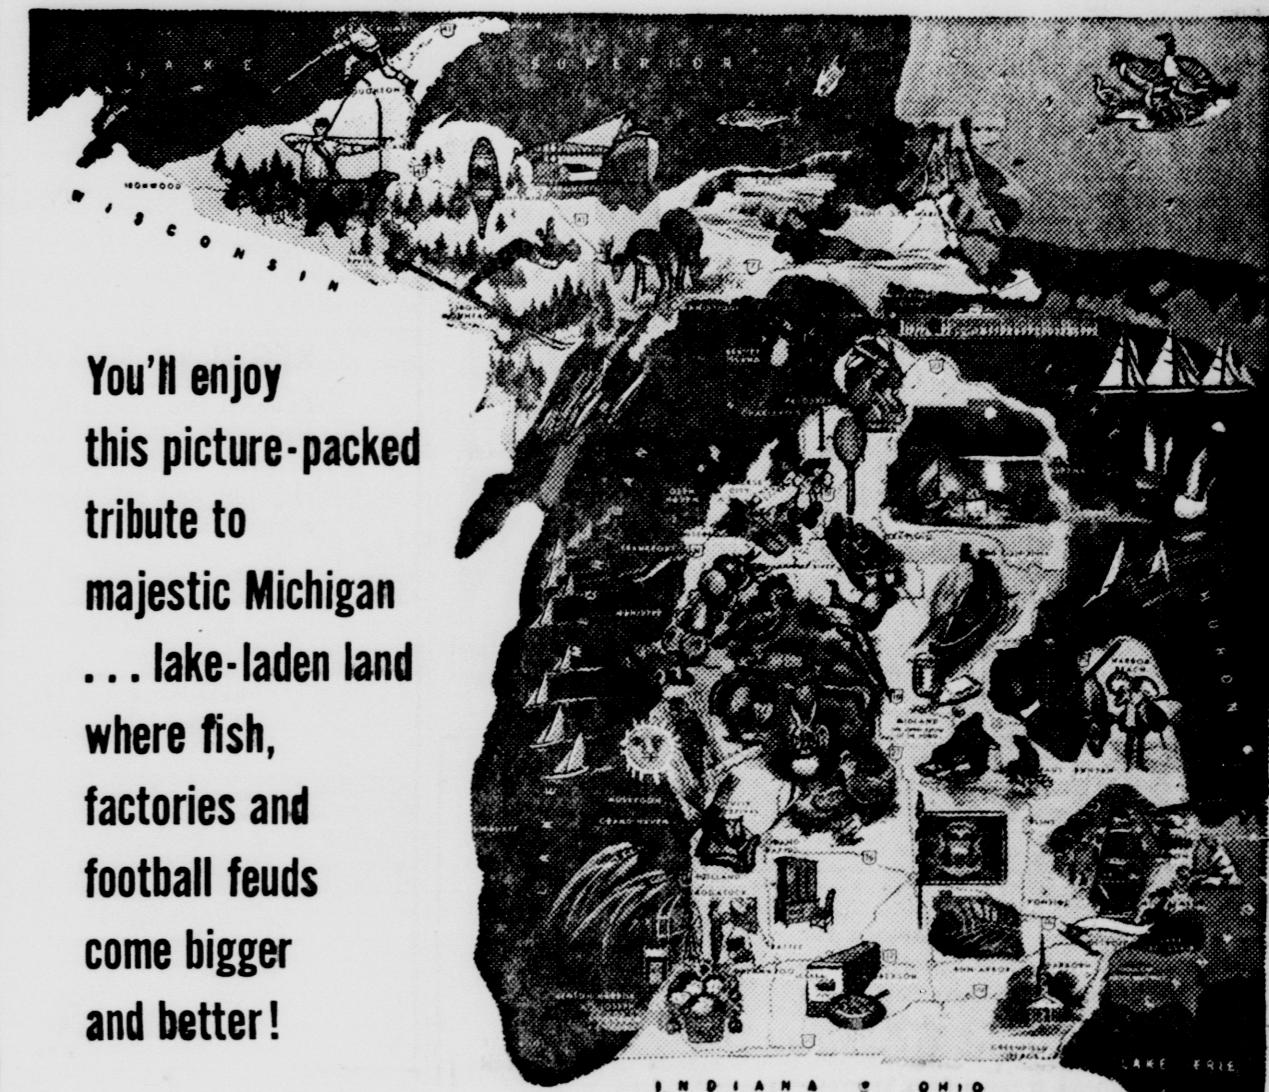

They are L. C. Young, 25, sentenced from Detroit Dec. 11, 1950, to 18 months to five years for carrying concealed weapons; Calvin Jones, 35, sentenced from Grand Rapids March 4, 1946, to one to five years for grand larceny and James Henry Ford, 35, sentenced from Detroit July 20, 1950, to one to four years for violation of the drug law.

Club Pays Your Bills, But You Pay The Club

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEW YORK—(NEA)—Up to now, there's only been three ways to deal with a month's accumulation of bills. You could rip them up, set fire to them or, as a last resort, pay them. Now there's a fourth alternative.

You can have somebody else pay them. And there's a somebody who is eager to do just that—for a fee. The Bill-of-the-Month Club is the name, and it's a new-fangled organization set up to handle an old-fangled headache.

The idea is a simple one. You instruct the merchants you deal with to send all future bills to the Club. The club, in turn, sends you just one bill a month, covering everything. You pay the Club, which pays the merchants.

Here's how the Bill-of-the-Month-Club works, dollar-by-dollar:

Mr. and Mrs. John Dough are a nice, average couple, with a nice, average way of life. He makes money and she spends it. She has charge accounts with five department stores, two butchers, three beauty parlors, a sprinkling of groceries. Bills also come in each month from the insurance company, the landlord, the telephone company, the gas and electric company—and a few thousand other relentless millionaires.

All bills used to come on the first of the month. Nowadays with cycle billing the vogue, the monetary menace is evenly distributed over the whole 30 days. The Doughs no sooner get finished paying one batch than a fresh assortment arrives. They keep writing checks, addressing envelopes, licking stamps.

If they are Club members, they don't get separate bills from each merchant. Once a month, the Club sends them one grand, glorious whopping bill covering everything—plus the Club's $6 per month fee. They write just one check, address just one envelope, affix just one stamp and have just one grand, glorious whopping scrap about finances.

With its monthly bill-to-end-all-bills, the Club sends all the individual bills and vouchers for your records. If you disagree with a charge, you can still enjoy that age-old American custom of fighting it out. You just deduct that paying the second or third. Under the Club plan he need pay only a part of his one monthly bill. The Club will pro-rate that payment among his creditors, and stick the rest on the bill next month.

At the end of the year, the Club sends you a complete budget report, showing how much you've spent for what. That report is designed to help at tax time, but it should also make for excellent financial reading.

The Club is the brainchild of James Brewster, an engineer and financial management expert. He was swamped with bills one day, one thing led to another and he had the idea. With Richard Bandler, an advertising man who liked the scheme, Brewster consulted top-level businessmen in many fields.

Nobody found any bugs in the plan, so they went into the business of assuming other people's burdens.

They admit the Club probably won't appeal to anybody making less than $10,000 a year. That's a sizable chunk of population to be written off, but they figure there are enough people left to make it pay.

"It's not the lazy guy we're after," says Bandler. "We're after the busy guy, who simply doesn't have time to pay his bills."

Before they went into business, they checked several large stores to see if they'd have any objection to sending their bills to the Club.

"Lissen," one department store executive said, "I don't care who pays as long as somebody does. If the account wants, I'll send the bill to you or to them or to Margaret Truman. All I want is my dough."

Which is a pretty decent way of looking at it.

item from the Club's bill and send them the remainder. Then you take up the questionable charge with the store that made it.

There's still hope for the man who gets fiendish delight in tearing up the first bill he gets and tail federal taxes.

"While Governor Williams, as a Democrat, says he is against consumer taxes, he hasn't raised his voice about the Democratic plans in Washington to grab millions of dollars more from Michigan people," Cleary said in a press statement.

"The federal government now takes one billion, two hundred and fifty million dollars from Michigan and returns eighty four million dollars. Doesn't the governor think an income tax increase and high cigarette and gasoline taxes are consumer taxes? Why doesn't he urge economy and less taxation on his good friend President Truman?"

THE girl shows scents! She stands behind the counter at Gust Asp's, and she'll not only show you the new solid colognes by D'Orsay, but let you enjoy the delicate fragrance of each. For the cool, fragrant life wherever you are, you'll want to carry a solid cylinder of the non-spill "Solidette" Eau de Toilette right along in your purse. Three wonderful selections—"Divine", "Intoxication", or "LeDandy". Only $1.75 for this lasting D'Orsay fragrance. Try some—you'll say the girls at Gust Asp's have the best scents in town!

I HOPE lots of women are enjoying the patter of little feet this Spring! The little feats of Papa as he accomplishes all the repair jobs around the house that he promised to do all winter. New cupboards built, fence fixed, stairs repaired, screens replaced, garage roof patched! All done twice as well as Mama expects when done with building supplies from the Stephenson Lumber Co. Lots of expert advice on what you need to do each job well comes along with the quality materials from this reliable company. Shell say those wonderful words—"Ya done good!"—when you did it with the help of the Stephenson Lumber Co.

FIGURES don't lie—but the Mata Brown Shop has some maternity dresses that condense the truth! Simply unbelievable are the smart good looks of the two piece suits. A green and brown checked jacket supplements a brown skirt; others in navy or tan. Just $19.95. Cleverly engineered skirts in dark colors are just $6.95. Navy and black frocks for dressier occasions are fashioned of faille with the always flattering touch of a wide white collar. The dresses, only $14.95. All the grace of a queen when you're a lady-in-waiting with a Mata Brown gown!

WANT to be a white collar woman? You can be if you let the Laundromat help you launder the shirts for that white collar man of yours. That 140° water (24 gal. each load) and 4 oz. of detergent does the job without any scrubbing on your part. The white collar woman has a soft job at the Sun-Brite Laundromat—short hours, because it takes just 39 minutes to run a load; big savings, because each load costs just 35c. I hope you'll try the Laundromat soon. You'll find out you can collar that man with the whitest collar he's ever seen!

THE dime isn't entirely worthless—it makes a fairly good screw driver! In these days of inflation it's nice to hear about one way to save money. "Parent's Magazine" says you can save up to $100 a year by using soft water in your home. It isn't just the saving on soap, expensive shampoos, and water softeners. It's the hidden savings like the longer wearing of clothes that are washed in soft water, and the fact that you can use less tea and coffee and still brew a better beverage from soft water! That's why Culligan Soft Water should be in every home. It's a soft life—it's a saving life with Culligan!

IF the hot weather makes you run around with long pants, be sure you're prepared to slip into the smooth shorts from Lauerman's! Handsomely cut from the finest sport fabrics—denims, sail cloth, heavy twills, and corduroys. Denim shorts at just $2.25. Matching halters trimmed with plaid, only $1.95. Corduroy shorts in luscious colors, $3.95. Especially sporty are the White Stag clambiggers—knee length shorts—of sanforized, long lasting sailcloth for $4.95. Gay colors in such sturdy material that it will look as fresh at the end of the summer as it does now! You'll be a good sport in the sport clothes from Lauerman's—that's the long and short of it!

JEANIE with the Light Brown Hair
May be his favorite song;
But Betty in the dark blue jeans
Is the gal he takes along!

You'll find jeans within your means when you shop at The Penney Store. Everybody from baby to grandpa can be outfitted with Penney's quality jeans. They show real Western hospitality with these prices, too: boys 1 to 6 (boxer or suspender style), just $1.49; girls 2 to 7, $1.69; boys, 6 to 16, $1.69; girls, 7 to 14, $1.98. See what I mean? Yipee!

BEAUTIFUL legs are sometimes without equal, but bow legs are always without parallel! You'll be planning a public appearance of your legs on the beach any day now. Hope you know about the modern depilatory cream at the Fair Store. It's Helena Rubenstein's Nudist—just $1.00 for a large tube. There is no odor to this unique depilatory; it can defuzz legs or underarm in 8 minutes with such little fuss. Be Fair to your legs with Nudist!

Birling; West Coast
Birlers Enter Meet

"Let's Go Birling," an article on log rolling by Ted Springer, Minneapolis, former junior birling champion and son of George S. Springer, appears in a current issue of "Open Road," a young people's magazine.

Pictures of young Springer, now a student at the University of Minnesota, who won the junior title here in 1941; Bobby Bizeau of Gladstone and George and Ray Heideman of Eau Claire, Wis., illustrate the article.

"There's lots of fun and excitement for boys learning this rugged sport of the lumberjack" is the sub-title on the magazine article which gives a brief history of the sport and suggestions for youths interested in trying to youths to spin a log.

Coronet Magazine is publicizing the Rolo to be held here July 4 in its July issue, listing it as one of three places to go for entertainment in Michigan during that month.

Latest entries in the rodeo are from Elmer Swanson and Bill Moore of Quilcene, Wash. Swanson has come to Gladstone on two or three occasions and is popular with the fans.

In addition there will be the champion, Jim Running, Eau Claire; Mark Olson, Escanaba; Lowell Girard, Gladstone; Ray Heideman, Eau Claire and Edward Ludwikoski, Eau Claire.

Birling will start at 10 on the morning of July 4 with the championship round starting at 2 in the afternoon.

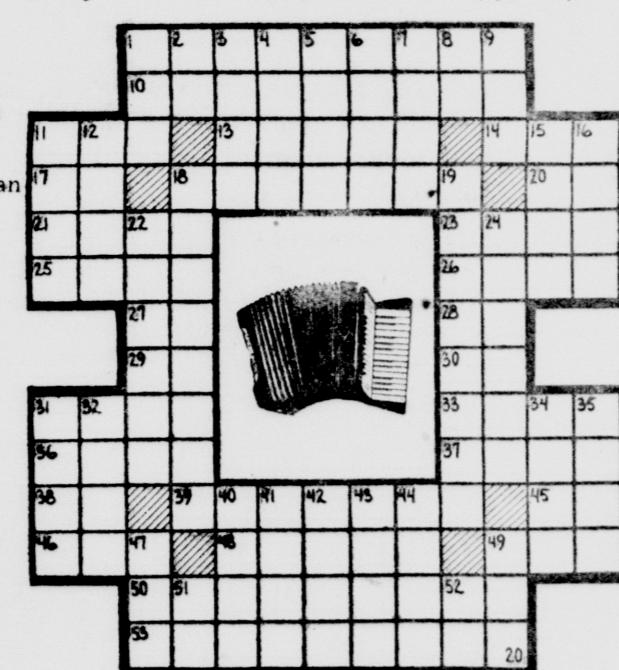

August Matson Post, American Legion, will participate in appropriate ceremonies in the morning preceding the opening of the rodeo marking the 175th anniversary of our July 4th holiday.

Ziegler Lauds
Safety Record
Letter Praises
City Achievement

Manistique is congratulated for its 1950 traffic safety record by Charles M. Ziegler, Michigan state highway commissioner, in a letter to Mayor James H. Fyvie.

The letter, read at a meeting of the city council Monday night, follows:

"I was highly pleased to learn from the National Safety Council reports that your fine city went through the entire year of 1950 without a single traffic fatality."

"I want to heartily congratulate you, your police and traffic organizations, and your law-respecting citizens for accomplishing this fine record."

"Highway and street safety is a matter which cannot receive too much attention. Too many lives are being lost, and too much personal injury and property damage is resulting from accidents which could be prevented, and I am proud that your city has made such progress in keeping the highways and streets safe for motorists and pedestrians alike. Keep up the good work."

Circuit Court
Ends YesterdayThree Judgements In Civil Suits Granted

The June term of circuit court, which was non-jury, was concluded yesterday afternoon after being in session since 2 p. m. Monday.

Three civil judgments were rendered, two divorce decrees granted and one criminal sentence imposed during the session.

William Perry, who had pleaded guilty Monday afternoon to desertion and non-support, was placed on probation for two years, and in addition he was ordered to do the following: Pay $40 every two weeks; post a cash bond of $400; pay $100 to Schoolcraft county for court expense; and pay $51.90 to the Schoolcraft county social-welfare board in reimbursement.

A summary judgment for $900 was granted in the case of Patricia Fredericks against Erroll A. and Grace H. Abell. The balance of the amount claimed is to be decided by jury at the September term of court.

A summary judgment for $1,324.75 also was rendered in the case of Walter P. Linderoth, against Frank Hawes.

In the case of the Twentieth Century Paint company versus Muithaupt Bros., a judgment in the amount of $1,520.74 plus costs of $15 was granted in favor of the plaintiff.

All other cases on the docket were continued.

Exemptions On Real Estate Tax Applies
To Men Now On Duty

All soldiers or sailors now on active duty are entitled to real estate tax exemptions as provided by law, it is pointed out by Don Messier, local veterans counselor.

The exemption is extended to any member of the nation's armed forces who entered service after Dec. 31, 1939, and covers the period of such service plus one year after service termination.

Therefore, Messier said, all those on active duty at the present time are entitled to the same exemption as was extended to soldiers and sailors of World War II.

Persons seeking information on the filing of exemption affidavits are advised to consult Miss Laura A. Williams, county treasurer, the veterans counselor said. Exemptions apply to real estate valued at $7,500 or less.

Hospital Has
New ExecutiveRock Island Man
Succeeds Boyce

Kenneth D. Moburg, of Rock Island, Ill., is the new administrator of the Schoolcraft Memorial hospital, it is announced by A. J. Cayia, chairman of the hospital board of trustees.

Moburg, who arrived here Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Moburg, succeeds James L. Boyce, who has been administrator since September, 1949.

The new administrator took over his new duties Monday and is working this week with Boyce. Boyce's resignation is effective next Monday at which time he and Mrs. Boyce will leave on a summer vacation in the east. In the fall Boyce will enter the University of Chicago to commence work on his master's degree in hospital administration.

The new administrator received his master's degree in hospital work from Northwestern University and served his internship at Grace hospital, Detroit.

The Moburges will reside at 312 Lake street.

New Ordinance
On Dogs DrawnCouncil Members To Study Proposal

Copies of a proposed new dog ordinance were distributed to members of the Manistique city council for study at the city board meeting Monday night. Further consideration of the ordinance is slated for the next council meeting.

The new ordinance, which would repeal an old dog ordinance, contains several provisions designed to bring about a more stringent control of dogs in the community.

The principal change provides for the licensing of dogs which was not required under the old regulation. The new ordinance also would require the vaccination of all dogs against rabies before the issuance of licenses.

Other regulations are similar to the old ordinance and provide for the impounding of dogs running at large, the destruction of dangerous or unclaimed dogs, and penalties for ordinance violations.

Rep. Wood Praised
By Municipal League
In Letter To City

State Representative John W. Wood, Manistique, is commended by the Michigan Municipal League for his opposition to legislation which would have led to greater domination of municipal affairs by state government.

In a letter to Mayor James H. Fyvie, read at the city council meeting Monday night, the municipal league pointed out that during the last legislative session House members had several opportunities to vote for or against measures affecting home rule for cities and villages. In particular the league directed attention to a measure which would impose obligations on city government with respect to the working conditions of firemen and policemen.

Rep. Wood, the league letter pointed out, voted against these proposals.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Somebody asked us the other day how Elmer Anderson, the highly regarded lefthanded pitcher from up around Iron River, was doing this season. Elmer, or "Swede" as he is more commonly known, has been striking out more batters in the Upper Peninsula than any other single pitcher in the past half dozen years. And we say that without reservation, having watched the U. P. baseball picture quite closely in recent years.

We checked with our Iron county agent yesterday and the answer wasn't surprising in the least. Pitching for Gaaster in the Twin State league, Swede is averaging 16.6 strikeouts per game. He has chalked up 83 strikeout victims in five games to date against Watersmeet, Gibbs City, Florence, Wis., Alpha and Caspian. He is undefeated this season.

A pretty bad typographical error popped up in our column Monday, causing the omission of the name of an Escanaba athlete among the letter winners at Northern Michigan College of Education. The list should have included Jack Schils who won major letters in track, football and basketball.

No-hit, no-run games seem to be cheap in the Upper Peninsula this baseball season. Jack Chriske was the first to turn in his masterpiece for Escanaba high school against Negaunee. Rusty Hilton turned the trick for the Escanaba Bears against Foster City and Wayne Ewald of Menominee followed with a similar performance against Munising in the Waubung league. Now comes Leonard Vizina, pitcher for the Baraga Junior Legion team who tossed his gem at Calumet the past weekend. And only Bob Dufour's single through the box kept Ernie Massignon from duplicating the feat against the Bears here Saturday evening.

Four Escanaba Cubs and Manager Al Ness were in Iron Mountain yesterday at the New York Giants baseball tryout camp. Pete Kutchis, John Martinac, Jack Chriske and Fred Boddy made the trip. Also slated to show up were Jim Nyquist, Tom Kroll, Russ Hilton and Dean Bailey of the Bears.

Tiger Pitching Crumbles, Philadelphia Wins, 9 To 5

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—May be it's the beef shortage, but the Detroit Tigers are going no place fast. Last night in their game with the last-place Philadelphia Athletics the Tigers looked as if they'd been on a diet of skim milk.

To add insult to injury the A's sent two pitchers with unimpressive records against the Tigers. But old "Sad Sam" Zoldak and reliever Johnny Kuba handed the Tigers a 9-5 defeat.

A crowd of only 4,880 in Shibe Park saw the Tigers drop the fourth game in six starts of their current road trip.

Detroit has a two-night double-header and a chance to get back in the groove tonight. Worried Red Rofe, the Tiger manager, planned to have Freddie Hutchinson and Virgil Trucks do the pitching. They will be opposed by Bob Hooper and Bobby Shantz, a pair of southpaws.

In last night's game the Tigers weren't exactly in a hitting slump. They got 10 hits. But the pitching which has been good fell apart.

Veteran Paul (Dizzy) Trout gave up ten hits in six innings and allowed three walks. Hal White relieved him in the seventh with one out, a runner on second, and the score tied.

Trout might as well have stayed in.

Low Scores Recorded At Highland Course

The Highland Golf club course took a going over yesterday as a half dozen Twilight league players reported in with low scores.

Jerry Harris, firing his first official Twilight round, carded a 37 for low honors. Allan Martin, high school ace, Dr. Francis Anderson and Vial Smith notched 38s and Ronnie Hirn, also making his first official tour, came up with a 39.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting—Willie Jones, Phillies, slumped two home runs to lead Phillips to a 9-2 victory over the Pirates.

Pitching—Larry Jensen, Giants, bested Cliff Chambers in a pitching duel as Giants nipped Cards, 2-1, for New York's seventh victory in eight decisions on the road.

Story Of White Sox Rise In American League

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK—(P)—American league managers are taking the White Sox seriously now, although there have been signs of crumbling on the current eastern swing.

As late as the beginning of this month, most observers regarded the Sox as morning glories, a false alarm. They scoffed at their pitching as woefully weak. They sneered at their batting strength.

Speed? The Sox had it. But what good will it do? You can't steal first base. Defense? Good enough, but not for a pennant contender.

"How can they stay up there?" Skeptics asked. "Look at those dime-store discards pitching for them. Guys like Lou Kretlow, Harry Dorish, Saul Rogovin, Ken Heilman, Howie Judson, Luis Aloma, Marv Rotblatt and Randy Gumpert. Just a lot of Joes nobody ever heard of."

However, Manager Paul Richards' rowdies thumbed their noses at the rest of the league. No pitching? These Joes have hurled 29 complete games, including seven shutouts.

Not hitting? Orestes Minoso, the Cuban flash, leads all hitters with a .379 average. Eddie Robinson is among the leaders in home runs and in tops in runs batted in. Nelson Fox is among the batting and two-base hit leaders.

It is on the basepaths, however, where the Sox really glister. Paced by the jet-propelled Jim Busby, the Sox have stolen 52 bases. Busby has pilfered 16 in 19 tries; Minoso 13 of 14.

The infield, reinforced by third baseman Bob Dillinger, is sound. Chico Carrasquel is one of the standout shortstops in baseball. He and second baseman Fox make a top notch double play pair. The heavy-hitting Robinson is having his best year at first.

Lions Upset St. Joe 6-4

Word around the Jaycee Little League is "Watch the Lions." Figures to finish behind Kiwanis and St. Joe, the Flath-Fitzpatrick proteges upset the cart last Saturday and stopped the highly touted Packer and company from St. Joe, 6 to 4.

Ken Schwabach tossed three-hit ball at the Saints, while his mates combed Gary Palmer for six hits and 10 walks. Al Erickson was the big gun in the Lion attack with two doubles.

The schedule for Thursday sends the Lions against Kiwanis a 2:30 and Rotary vs. St. Joe in the nightcap at Memorial Field.

The small fry have their sights leveled on the second phase of the program when they will give the night traffic its first look at Little League baseball under the lights at Memorial Field next Wednesday or Thursday.

The Softball association, which has joined the leagues many sponsors in backing the kids 100 percent, has arranged to schedule one game a week under the lights.

Even Yanks Convinced Chisox Team To Beat

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Those battling Chicago White Sox are making believers of their opponents—team by team, manager by manager.

Now it's New York and Manager Casey Stengel singing the praises of the spectacular Sox.

"Maybe we've been worrying about the wrong fellers," muttered Stengel after Chicago had clawed its way back to a 5-4 victory in the second game of a vital double header yesterday with the Yankees. The Bombers won the opener, 11-9, and appeared on the way to a sweep of the twin bill.

Casey Stengel

They led, 3-1, after seven innings of the nightcap.

Can't Lose Lead

So instead of slicing two games off the White Sox' first place lead, the Yankees wound up just where they started—trailing by three and a half games. No matter what the result of single games today and tomorrow, the hot Sox will leave New York still pacing the American league.

"It looks like we're going to have to beat Chicago, rather than Boston and Cleveland, for the pennant," declared Casey.

The jam-packed throng of 60,441, eager for a good look at pilot Paul Richards' rockets, agreed with Stengel. The fans went away convinced that the Sox were no accidents.

Indeed, not many in the vast crowd, gave Chicago much of a chance as the Sox came to bat against Ace Vic Raschi in the eighth, trailing 3-1. But those never-say-die visitors had other ideas.

Sox Forge Ahead

Pinch hitter Floyd Baker slapped a single to center. Nelson Fox timed one to right and Eddie Stewart hammered a home run into the right field stands. Without an out being made, the Sox had forged in front, 4-3.

But the Yanks hadn't given up either. Singles by Phil Rizzuto, Gene Woodling and pinch hitter Johnny Mize in their half of the eighth tied the count against Randy Gumpert, who had replaced starter Joe Dobson.

Again the Sox went to work. Jim Busby singled in the ninth, and raced to third on a one-bagger by Phil Masi. Albie Reynolds replaced Raschi and yielded a two-bagger to pinch hitter Bob Dillinger. That scored Busby with the winning run. Howie Judson set the Yanks down in order in the ninth but the victory went to Gumpert, who has now won seven without a defeat.

Boston's third place Red Sox advanced to within five games of the top as Chuck Stobbs limited the Cleveland Indians to four hits and beat them, 9-2. Ted Williams paced a 14-hit attack against loser Bob Lemon and two successors with his 14th homer and two singles. Luke Easter accounted for both Cleveland runs with a homer in the ninth.

Homers by Eddie Joost and Gus Zernial helped the Philadelphia Athletics trip the Detroit Tigers, 9-5.

The St. Louis Browns combined seven safeties and five Washington errors for enough runs to whip the Senators 4-1.

The Cincinnati Reds rallied for four runs in the ninth but fell one short as the Brooklyn Dodgers walked off with a 5-4 triumph under the lights.

Giants Win 2-1

New York's Giants remained five and a half games behind, eking out a 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in a game limited to eight innings by rain. Hank Thompson drove in both New York runs.

Willie Jones hit his 12th and 13th homers, one with the bases loaded, to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 9-2 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Bob Rush hurled a 3-0 victory for Chicago over Boston as the Braves' manager, Billy Southworth, bowed out in favor of Tommy Holmes.

Happy Chandler Now Joins Baseball Fans

NEW YORK—(P)—A. B. Chandler is now an out-and-out baseball fan.

He went to yesterday's double-header between the Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees because he likes to go to baseball games, and for the first time in six years he expressed himself freely about baseball players, speaking, he said, "as a fan."

The shorty will relinquish the commissionership of the game. Baseball owners have agreed to the terms of his several year contract.

"Take Paul Richards (manager of the Chicago White Sox). He's one of my favorite fellows," Chandler said. "I was attracted to him in the minors. I thought then he was going to be a great manager. He's a hard worker. He doesn't like to lose."

Mr. Summers

Umpire Bill Summers brushed off the plate between innings, looked over at Chandler's box, and raised his hand as he grinned a greeting.

"I always call him Mr. Summers," said Chandler. "I asked him to call 'Bill' but I told him the reason I called him 'Mr. Summers' was that I had respect for him. I like to have him working the World Series."

Hulking John Mize came to the plate for the Yankees.

"It's a great tribute to a fellow when he keeps himself in shape like Johnny Mize—playing baseball at 38, and playing good baseball. And look at Wally Moses over at Philadelphia. He's been playing baseball for 20 years, and in the big leagues since 1935. That's a great tribute to him."

Hungry Players

"Those Latin-Americans are hungry ball players. They try harder. We've got too many boys in this country who take it easy. You've got to work hard to play baseball. The reason the Negro boys have come along so fast is that they see the opportunity and want to make a place for themselves."

Chandler said he spoke as a real baseball fan and not as a commissioner in his comments on the game. It was noticeable that he remained impartial, praising both team almost equally.

Power & Light, Westby's Win

St. Ann's Tips Al's 18-17 In National

Dick Nelson, left fielder, slammed two homers and a single to drive in four runs and lead Westby's Service to a 7-3 win over Clairmont Transfer in the American Softball league last night.

Ken Buckland scattered seven hits on the Westby mound with Bill Mulvaney behind the plate.

John Baker and Sullivan doubled up on the Clairmont hill and allowed six hits between them. LeBay was backstop. Howie Larson collected two hits in two trips for the losers.

No Names Lose

The No Names fell 7-1 to Power & Light in another league outing last night. Bill Courneene dished out four hits for the winners with Bud Kenneally catching.

Ike Eis and John Hirn made up the No Name battery. Tom Schwabach, Power & Light shortstop, had a perfect day at the plate with five hits in five trips. Don Paulin, first base, had three for four.

In the National league St. Ann's turned in an 18-17 victory over Al's Tavern on the strength of an eighth inning rally that wiped out a 17-11 deficit.

Old Timer Golf Meet At Marquette Course

The 'old timers' senior golf tournament, an annual event of the Upper Peninsula Golf association, will be held over the sporty nine-hole Marquette Golf club course, Saturday, July 28, it was announced here today.

Many golfers in the 50-59 age group from the two Escanaba courses, Highland and the Escanaba Golf club, and the Gladstone Golf club are expected to compete in this tourney.

Marquette's course is in excellent shape, and a new clubhouse has been erected. Dr. W. D. Salo is chairman for the 1951 tourney.

West Peninsula TB Rate High

Problems Studied At Marquette Meeting

MARQUETTE, Mich.—(P)—The tuberculosis problem "has a direct relationship to current population trends," a state legislator told the Michigan Tuberculosis association yesterday.

Arnell Engstrom (R-Traverse City), a member of the house ways and means committee, declared the state counties must "provide the care and treatment where it will do the most good for the greatest number."

Rep. Engstrom addressed the closing session of the association's two-day convention—the first ever held in the Upper Peninsula by the group.

New Infections Continue

Engstrom listed Wayne county as Michigan's No. 1 high death rate area, followed by a 10-county area in the western part of the Upper Peninsula. Two counties in that Upper Peninsula area, he said, had death rates of 37.4 and 48.1 per 100,000 population in 1949 compared to the state average of 22.

More than 300 delegates heard Dr. John Isbister of the Michigan department of health warn that while the tuberculosis death rate continues to fall there has been no sharp drop in new cases of the disease reported since 1937.

Dr. Isbister said deaths were cut from 41.6 per 100,000 population in 1937 to 19.9 last year. New cases of the disease reported in 1937 totaled 6,469 as against 5,538 in 1950, he added.

Better x-raying and testing, he said, may partly explain the large number of new infections still being reported.

Rest Biggest Factor

Dr. John W. Towey, director of the Pinecrest Sanatorium at Powers, said, "with all the improvements in treatment, bed rest and isolation is still the most important single factor in recovery."

Joseph C. Austin, retired Royal Oak steel industrialist, was elected president of the association. He succeeds Judge Herman Dehne of Harrisville, who was named to the executive committee along with C. M. Yates and Dr. C. J. Stringer of Lansing. Other officers chosen were: vice-presidents, Walter F. Gries of Negaunee and Dr. W. L. Howard of Northville and treasurer, Harry D. Bennett of Lansing.
